EFFECTIVE ADVERTISING.

Van Allen the Immigration Commissioner of California says: Newspaper advertising is the only effective printed kind. It is a waste of effort and energy to distribute pamphlets or circulars on the cars at Ogden. I would advise all who find it possible to write letters to the country papers at their former homes in the East. If each one who can do so would constitute himself a committee of one to write at least one of these letters, you can't imagine the splendid results that would be sure to follow.

No wonder California booms under the management of a man of such sense as that.

POLITICAL POINTS.

—Pike, of Churchill, is for Bo-lenger.

—Elko county wants to name a Presidential elector.

—Judge Fitzgerald is not a candidate for Supreme Judge.

—The main fight at Winnemucca will be over the Supreme Judgeship.

—The old time custom of hand-shaking is now being practiced with vigor.

—Bob Stewart will seek the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Esmeralda county.

—Judge Webster of Reno will be one of the Democratic candidates for Supreme Judge.

—Prof. Young is anxious to get a chance to wrestle with Cassidy for the Congressional seat.

—Two prominent men in Storey are anxious to go to Chicago. Both are good men, and the voters are in a quandary.

—Senator Boyle of Storey county is said to be the choice of his county delegation for delegate to the Republican National Convention.

—Hon. T. B. Riekey is prominently and frequently mentioned as a candidate for the Presidential Elector on the Republican ticket.

—Black Wallace passed through Elko the other day with his pockets so stuffed with proxies that he could hardly walk up the aisle of the car.

—It is said that John Frazer longs for the office of Sheriff of Washoe county, and will shy his castor into the political whirlpool the coming campaign.

—If there is a dead lock in 'Chicago there is a strong possibility of old Bill Stewart of Nevada looming up as the Presidential candidate on the Silver, Protection and American platform.

—The bells should ring, the guns thunder, and the buzzes of the joyful go up from every mountain-top where there is a miner, in honor of Senator William M. Stewart's "sweep" on the Coin Certificate proviso.

—The Republicans of Washoe county propose nominating a candidate for the office of Assessor this Fall. The Democrats, in all probability will not, as they claim Assessor Stoddard is elected to serve four years. The Supreme Court will then be called upon to decide the question as to who is entitled to the persimmon.

Overdid the Praying.

There is just now a general desire to have the pastors of the various churches here pray for rain. Some object because they might overdo it. This reminds one of an incident some years ago in Genoa.

An old dinky who lived in a leaky shanty saw his crops withering up from too much drouth, and asked his son if he didn't have an idea it would be good to pray for rain. The boy agreed and started in, and while he prayed the old man fell asleep.

As the boy wrestled with prayer a big cloud came over the mountains, and presently a cloudburst in one of the narrow canyons sent a torrent of water down the ravine and washed through the darkey's cabin. He woke up with a cry of terror, and seeing the boy on his knees trying to stuff old rags in the crack under the door to keep the water out, shouted:

"I say, Bill, let up foh de lawd's sake. Does you want to drown you poor ole fada?"

—Matthew Arnold, who died recently, was one of England's great writers and scholars. He was a man of high education, but he was not a great genius like Thackeray, Dickens or Reid. His works will not become a part of the literature of the world after he has been long dead. They will not be read in palace and hovel. He spent too much time at college to ever make a great name in literature.
